

1. Open your book, page 76:

Read and drag the missing words to complete the text.

fertile Tigris Asia Seven farmers between rules Mesopotamia thousand years ago, a group of started living in a very area between the river and the river Euphrates, in . Later the Greeks called this area , which means "lands rivers". This was where people began to make for people to live by.

2. Choose the right sentences: (elegir más de una)

- a) Soldiers protected the wall that was around the city.
- b) In Mesopotamia ziggurats were used to observe stars.
- c) Every boy and girl went to school.
- d) Scribes wrote in slabs of clay information and laws.
- e) The rivers overflowed at the beginning of winter.

3. Read and select the answers

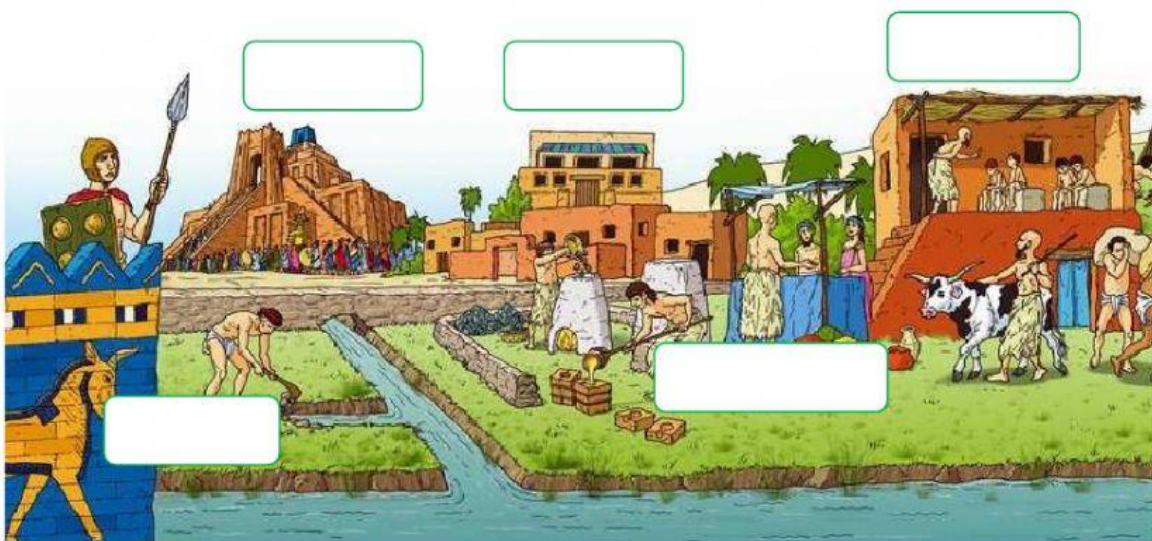

- a) Where did peasants live?
- b) Where did the richest merchants live?
- c) Where did people buy and sell products?
- d) Who went to school?
- e) How were the cities in Mesopotamia?
- f) What is the shape of a ziggurat?

4 . Write True (T) or False (F).

- The first great civilisations appeared in the river valleys of Asia and Africa. ☐
- Egypt was where people first gathered in large cities, learned to write, made laws and created governments. ☐
- Mesopotamia means land between rivers. ☐

5 . Label the picture. Use the words in the box.

market, school, wall, ziggurat, house

7. Read and complete the text.

Thewere the kings of Egypt.

They were very, and all the land in the country was theirs.

The people believed they were

Before they died, they ordered the people to build enormous tombs for them, called

.....

They were.....when they died because they believed they would be born into a new.....

Because of this, the Egyptians buried them with all their belongings and

One of the most famous pharaohs was

8. Read and select the correct option.

The people of Mesopotamia wrote on clay tablets.

- A. hieroglyphs
- B. Mesopotamian language
- C. pictograms