EXAM PRACTICE
UNIT 1

1. Label the parts of the cells.

2. Complete the following sentences:

- The smallest living unit is a_____.
- A group of similar cells which perform the same function is called a _____.
- A group of different organs working in the same function is called a _____.
- Living things perform three vital functions: n_____, i_____ and r_____.
- Living things formed by one cell are called _____.
- You can kill dangerous bacteria with _____.
- Only _____ cells have chloroplasts and cell walls.
- The DNA is contained in the _____ of the cell.
- Part of the cell that stores substances: _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Classify these living things into the five kingdoms:

alga, spider, mushroom, daisy, bacteria

Animal Kingdom	Plant Kingdom	Fungi Kingdom	Protist Kingdom	Monera Kingdom

4. Number the sentences in the correct order.

- Many tissues work together to make organs. _____
- Similar cells form layers known as tissues. ____
- Organs work together to make systems and ensure that we function properly as an organism. ____
- Cells are the structural units of life. ____
- Each organ has got a specific job.____

LIVEWORKSHEETS