

Archimedes

Drag the words.

Syracuse

Greek

bath

Eureka

moved

problem

king

calculate

crown

gold

jumped

happy

Archimedes was an Ancient [] mathematician, astronomer and engineer. He was born in 287 BC in the city of []

When he was 10 years old, he [] to Alexandria, in Ancient Egypt. When he returned he was working for the [] of Syracuse.

One day, the King asked Archimedes to help him with a [] .

A gold [] had been made for him, and he wanted to make sure that it was completely made out of [] .

There was one condition: Archimedes could not damage the crown.

While having a [] . Archimedes realized that he could [] the density of an object by dividing its mass by its volume.

He was so excited, that he [] from his bath and ran to the city shouting : [] which means "I found it!".

At the end, the king was very [] with his solution.

