My friend thinks it is alright to break the lockdown and visit her parents as it is very hard to stay at home all day.
My neighbour thinks that he has got symptoms of coronavirus but he is not sure.
My children are always eager to eat crisps and chocolate without washing their hands.
My sister avoids wearing facemask and gloves while shopping. She feels uneasy as she is not used to covering her face.
I am too scared to order takeaways.
I have gained 5 pounds in two weeks since the lockdown. I feel tired and lazy.
I lost my job as a construction worker after lockdown now I can't afford to pay my house rent.
It is very depressing staying at home. I often end up arguing with my partner.
