

Instructions

After watching the video, indicate if the statements about energy in the table below are True or False.

Statements	True	False
Energy is present everywhere.
Energy can be created or destroyed.
Energy in the air can be transformed into electricity.
There is only one type of sources of energy.
Sunlight is a non renewable energy.
Energy can move from one place to another.
Thermal energy is created by movement.
Food is a source of energy.

Writing task

Write a short paragraph to describe the actions that you take to help save energy. Use the word bank to help you write your text.

To go further, speak in English about this subject with your teacher, your friends or the members of your family.

I can save energy!