Present Perfect vs Past Simple

Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

1 Have you ever lent money to your family?
No, but I 've lent / lent some to a friend last week.

2 Have you ever been camping?
Yes, but we haven't enjoyed / didn't enjoy it last time.

3 Have you been on a plane?
No, I haven't flown / didn't fly before.

4 Have you ever seen the Eiffel Tower?
Yes, I 've lived / lived in Paris when I was young.

5 Have you ever done yoga?
Yes, I 've had / had a yoga class yesterday.

6 Have you ever driven on the motorway?
Yes, I 've done / did it lots of times.

7 Have you ever been to China?
No, but I 've been / went to Japan a few years ago.

Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

A 1 Did you ever do/Have you ever done anything really exciting?

B Well, 2 I haven't travelled/ I didn't travel into space, if that's what you mean! But, yes, 3 I drove/I've driven a Ferrari.

A Really? When 4 have you done/did you do that?

B Last year. My girlfriend 5 gave/ has given me 30 minutes in a Ferrari as a present.

A How far 6 did you go/ have you gone ?

B 7 I didn't drive/ I haven't driven very far – about 50 km.

A 8 Did you enjoy/ Have you enjoyed it?

B Yes, it was fun.

A What about your girlfriend? 9 Has she ever done/ did she ever do anything similar?

B Yes, she loves exciting sports and she often goes skiing and surfing. She 10 's climbed/climbed Everest too, and she 11 flew/'s flown a helicopter. But she 12 hasn't jumped/ didn't jump out of a plane. I'm going to give her a parachute jump for her next birthday!