

Name.....

Animals

Animals Classifications

1- Decide if the sentences are True or false

- a- Reptiles breathe with gills. -----
- b- Fish are cold blooded and their bodies are covered with scales. -----
- c- Birds are warm blooded. -----
- d- Mammals' babies are born alive. -----
- e- Mammals have fur and they feed their babies with milk. -----
- f- Reptiles have cold blood and their body is covered with fur. -----
- g- Mammals, fish, birds and reptiles don't have a backbone. -----
- h- Amphibians can live on land and in the water. -----
- i- The skin of amphibians is wet and viscous. -----
- j- Birds have beaks and wings. -----
- k- Some mammals have scales. -----
- l- Birds, reptiles, amphibians and fish lay eggs. -----

Animals body parts

2- Write the correct part of the body next to the hint or clue.

- a- Fish and reptiles body covering. -----
- b- Fish breathe with... -----
- c- Mammals body covering. -----
- d- Long nails of some animals. -----
- e- Feet of animals such as cows or goats. -----
- f- Long nose of elephants. -----
- g- Zebras and bees have... -----
- h- Hard, pointed, often curved part that grows from the top of the head of some animals. -----
- i- A rounded lump that sticks out on the back of a camel. -----
- j- the long thick hair around or at the back of the neck of some animals, as the horse or lion. -----

