PAST MODALS OF DEDUCTION

1. Match the sentences (A-F with 1-6)

| | |
|---|---|
| A) She must have done it. | 1. I am sure she didn't see it. |
| B) She can't have done it. | 2. I am sure she didn't do it. |
| C) She might have done it. | 3. I am sure she did it. |
| D) She must have seen it. | 4. It is possible that she saw it. |
| E) She may have seen it. | 5. I am sure she saw it. |
| F) She couldn't have seen it. | 6. It is possible that she did it. |

2. Rewrite the sentences:

A) It is possible that Shakespeare wrote this play.
_____
_____

B) I am certain that she stole the money.
_____
_____

C) I am sure she didn't drive that car.
_____
_____

D) I am certain that Mark spoke to her.
_____
_____

E) David certainly didn't read the book.
_____
_____

F) It is possible that he lied.
_____
_____

3. Complete the sentences using the auxiliary and the perfect infinitive.

A)
A: I've finished my work.
B: But you were only half way through when I went to bed. You _____ (work) all night long.

B)
A: Have you seen Jack. I told him to be here at 8 and there is no sign of him.
B: He _____ (forget). He forgets a lot.
A: Or he _____ (get lost). He has never been here before.
B: He _____ (get lost). He has got a great navigation in his mobile and he uses it all the time.

C)

A: He says that he saw wolves when he was walking across Hyde Park.

B: Nonsense! He _____ (see) wolves. There are no wolves in Hyde Park. He _____ (see) some grey dogs and he _____ (mistake) them for wolves.

D)

A: He had two bottles of Coca Cola and he got drunk.

B: He _____ (get) drunk on Coca-Cola. He _____ (drink) gin with it.

E)

A: How did Pam get here?

B: I don´t know. She _____ (come) by car.

A: She _____ (come) by car. She does not drive.

B: Someone _____ (give) her a lift or she _____ (come) by tram.