

- ◆ Second largest desert in the world.
- ◆ Most important source of water for plants & animals in the Namib desert.

- Name of this plant.
- This is an example of some of the plants we find in the desert. Other examples are the Welwitschia that collects fog on its stems & leaves & passes the water to its roots.

- ★ Name of this beetle.
- ★ Collects water on its body, then tipping forwards to guide the water to its mouth. Other examples of desert animals are spiders, scorpions, lizards, snakes, lions, cheetahs, leopards, hyena, desert elephant, gemsbok, springbok

