

What do you do for fun with your friends?

1. What is the main topic of today's video?
 - a. Entertainment
 - b. Friendship
 - c. Sports
2. According to the video, ...
 - a. riding a rollercoaster is funnier than going go-karting
 - b. riding a rollercoaster is much funnier if you go with your friends.
 - c. it is more enjoyable to play computer games on your own.
3. Robert...
 - a. wanted to go to a conference about comics from the very beginning.
 - b. went to the comic conference because his friend convinced him.
 - c. didn't like the conference.
4. Claire
 - a. went to the concert because she was invited by her friend.
 - b. discovered that her friend didn't really like her "favourite" band.
 - c. was upset because her friend didn't like her birthday present.
5. Sue's friend ...
 - a. didn't like sports at all.

- b. was not sincere about her real reasons to buy the tickets.
- c. didn't have fun watching the football match.

What do you do to have fun with your friends

Hello and welcome to Your views, the show where we ask you what you think. I'm Dave Mullane. Today we're discussing _____. There are many types of entertainment. Some things we _____ do on our own, such as playing a _____, reading a book or _____ a film. _____, there are many other things that are more enjoyable to do with other people. Riding a _____ or going go-karting isn't as much fun when you do it _____! So, we _____ people what they do for _____ with their _____.

I like _____ new things with my _____ and recently I _____ to a conference about comics with one of them. I'm not a huge comic _____, so when my friend _____ it to me, my _____ reaction was, no way! I _____ comics were for geeks! But then he _____ to me that comics cover all _____ of topics and if I liked _____ normal books, I'd like comic books, too. I _____ wasn't _____, but he _____ I'd enjoy it, so eventually, I agreed to go. On the way home, I admitted to him that I'd really enjoyed it!

A few weeks _____ my friend's _____ she mentioned that her favourite _____ were _____ a _____ in our town. I thought - great! I'll _____ her _____ because we love going to _____ together. So, on her _____ I gave her the tickets. It was _____ then that she revealed that she didn't _____ like the _____! But she didn't _____. We still _____ to the concert and we still had a _____ good _____.

I don't like _____ and watching a _____ game _____ something I would do for _____. So I was quite _____ when one of my _____ bought me two tickets to a football _____ for Christmas. Then I _____ that they were for the _____ that she supports! Of _____, she _____ that she'd _____ bought them for _____ , but when I asked her to come with me, she agreed a little bit too_____! And I can now confirm, I really, really don't like football!

Sometimes you have the most fun at the events you didn't expect to enjoy, especially if you're with the right people. Just ask Robert. Although, if your friends are like Sue's, it might be better to go alone! But what about you? What do you do for fun with your friends?