09:01am GMT  London is really one of the best cities for museums, because a lot of museums are free. Forget about Madame Tussauds Wax Museum! It's always very busy and it's overpriced. It's one of the most expensive museums in London. Quote Share Reply

09:12am GMT  I'm a huge fan of Madame Tussauds and to me it is a MUST-SEE in London. The wax statues are amazing. They are so real and the best thing is that you can stand next to stars and take photos . You can meet a lot of celebs like Brad Pitt, Rafael Nadal, Lady Gaga or the Queen . And don't miss the Star Wars experience. It's like you're in the film with Yoda or Princess Leia! Madame Tussauds is one of the funniest museums in London. Quote Share Reply
