Swamps, Oceans, Savanna, and Desert

In a swamp, _____ grow out of the water.

_____ hide below the water. You can only see their eyes.

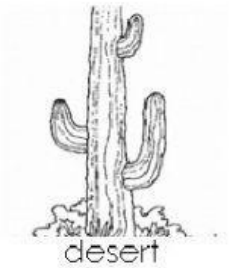

In the ocean, the food chain begins with _____.

_____ eat plants and small fish. They are omnivores.

The Savanna is a grassland. _____ live there and eat grass.

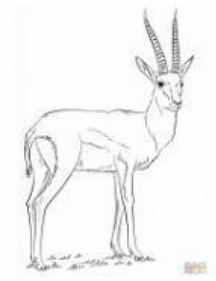

Predators like _____ and the spotted _____ hunt there.

The Australian desert is home to many ants. The _____ eats ants.

The _____ also eats insects. It eats crickets and spiders.

The _____ also lives there. It hops around eating grass.

gazelle

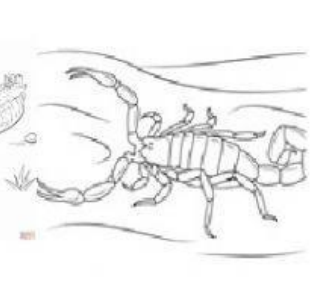

tall trees

cheetah

alligators

scorpion

lions

sea turtle

red kangaroo

thorny devil

seaweed