

BODIES OF WATER

About 75% of the Earth's surface is covered with water. The bodies of water are: oceans and seas, lakes, reservoirs, glaciers and ice caps, rivers and water under the Earth's surface.

Bodies of water

Write the names of the bodies of water.

ACROSS

- 4 They are long bodies of fresh water and flow into seas and oceans.
- 5 They are surrounded by land on all sides. They can hold fresh water or salt water.
- 6 They are small rivers.
- 7 They are the largest bodies of water and are made of salt water.

DOWN

- 1 They are man-made and used for storing fresh water.
- 2 They are large masses of snow.
- 3 They are large masses of ice.

1. Listen and drag and drop the pictures and the definitions.

They are large masses of ice and snow.

They are man-made and used for storing fresh water.

They are the largest bodies of water and are made of salt water.

They are long bodies of fresh water and flow into seas and oceans.

They are surrounded by land on all sides. They can hold fresh water or salt water.

It mainly comes from rain and melted snow that is absorbed into the ground.

Name	Picture	Definition
Oceans and seas
Lakes
Reservoirs
Glaciers and ice caps
Rivers
Water under the Earth's surface.		