

REPTILES

Complete the descriptions of the reptiles using the words given.

four limbs

slither

scales

carnivores

swim

lungs

oviparous

omnivores

Cobras have a long body that is covered with scales. They are very good hunters and can slither very quickly. Cobras are carnivores and eat other snakes, birds and small mammals.

Alligators usually live in freshwater. They have four limbs but they can swim faster than they can walk. They breathe with their lungs. Alligators are omnivores and lay their eggs on land which is near water.

Tortoises live on land. They have scales and a hard shell. They can hide inside their shell for protection. Most tortoises are herbivores but some are omnivores and eat both plants and meat.

FISH

Label the parts of the fish.

