I. Read the text and answer the questions.

Last night, before she went to sleep, Holly read her new library book. It was a story about an exciting camping adventure in the mountains. When she finished reading, Holly closed her eyes and went to sleep.

In Holly's dream that night, she woke up in a tent in the middle of a jungle. She left the tent and climbed up a mountain like the person in her book. When she was climbing, she saw lots of rivers and lakes! When Holly was going down the mountain in her dream, her new pet kitten, Hero, came into her bedroom.

Hero was hungry. He jumped on Holly's bed to wake her up. He wanted some food!

But Holly didn't wake up. She was still dreaming.

When Hero jumped on Holly's bed, in her dream a large crocodile jumped out from a cave in the mountain. Holly was frightened and she woke up suddenly! But there was no crocodile on her bed. There was only hungry Hero!

The next morning she told her family about her strange dream. 'In my dream I was climbing down a mountain when Hero jumped on my bed!' she laughed. 'In my dream I thought hungry Hero was a hungry crocodile! I woke up, went downstairs to give Hero some food and then went back to bed. What an adventure!'
