

Human impact on nature

Grammar Reference

REFERENCIA GRAMATICAL: There was: había (singular)
There were: habían (plural)

There was/There were

The structure there + be in the past indicates something that existed or occurred in the past.

	Singular	Plural	Examples:
Affirmative	There was	There were	There was a lot of snow and ice on Everest in 1989. There were many trees near my house when I was little.
Negative	There was not (= wasn't)	There were not (= weren't)	There wasn't an agreement. There weren't birds flying.
Interrogative	Was there	Were there	Was there a conference in Bali years ago? Were there dirty rivers around here?

Used to

Used to: Solía/solían/solíamos: una rutina que hacíamos en el pasado

The structure used to indicates something that happened regularly in the past but doesn't happen anymore. It is followed by a verb in the base form.

		Examples:
Affirmative	Used to	I used to swim in the river when I was 8. Rivers used to be clean when she was a kid.
Negative	Did not (= didn't) use to	Pollution didn't use to be a problem in small cities. They didn't use to climb trees when they were little.
Interrogative	Did (it) use to	What did you use to do on the weekends? Where did you use to go with your parents?

Word List

Look at the words on the list and complete them with missing vowels.

f__ss__l f__el

m__ss t__rism

p__llut__on p__wer pl__nt

r__ads and h__ses

s__wag__

w__ste

w__ldl__fe tr__d__