

ENERGY AND MACHINES

1.- Complete these sentences about combustion:

Substances change when we _____ them. When something burns there is a _____ change called _____ that produces _____ and _____.

2.- What do we need to make a combustion? Write Yes o No

Fuel _____ Water _____ A spark _____
Ice _____ Carbon dioxide _____ Oxygen _____

2.- What is energy? (write True or false):

- a) Energy makes things move, machines work and living organisms grow. ____
b) Energy makes things be quiet, machines work and living organisms breath. ____

3.- Choose the type of energy in every picture:

4.- Complete the table with TRUE or FALSE:

	TRUE/FALSE
Conductors are materials that electricity flows through very easily
Insulators are materials that electricity flows through easily
The human body is conductor
Metals are insulators
Rubber and plastic are conductors
Wood and glass are examples of insulators

5.- Select the correct answer:

Machines:

6.- Select the six simple machines in this sketch.

