

QUANTIFIERS

1. Write down the right answer between few/a few/little/some/much/many.

- a) people went to yesterday night's party; we were only 10.
- b) Sorry Sir, but you can't board the plane, you have too luggage.
- c) Too pieces of luggage prevents you from boarding a plane.
- d) Sadly, will be done to improve the situation!
- e) Sadly, not will be done to improve the situation!
- f) I have coins in my pocket, but not so

2. Select the right answer among the propositions.

- a) Few / A few have had the chance to win millions at the lottery. It's rare!
- b) Not many / much people have won the lottery.
- c) Only few / a few people won the lottery last year.
- d) They didn't spend much / many time at the casino last night.
- e) Too many / Too much people lose their money when they play the lottery.
- f) A lot of / A lots of people like gambling (=betting money).
- g) She won some / many money at the casino.

3. Complete the sentences with little / few / a little / a few.

- a) She invited Friends.
- b) people work on Sundays.
- c) Hurry up! I have patience.
- d) I would like milk, please.
- e) Can you give me money to go to the cinema, please?
- f) There were visitors at the museum so it was very quiet.