

5. I can build...

The interface shows four rows of letter tiles on a blue and white striped background. Each row has a set of letter tiles followed by three empty boxes for building a word. A pink arrow points from the letter tiles to the empty boxes. The letter tiles are: Row 1: h, m, a, t; Row 2: l, p, a, m; Row 3: t, e, n, h; Row 4: s, x, o, f. The empty boxes are yellow. The interface includes a 'genially' logo in the bottom left, a 'Add page' button in the bottom right, and a search bar in the top right.
