

How does our body use food?

minerals - proteins – potatoes – meat - needed - vitamins - eat
– energy – bodies

You need to _____ food for different reasons. One reason is that you need _____. Bread, _____ and pasta are full of the kind of energy that our _____ need.

_____ in food help the body grow. _____, fish and beans have a lot of protein.

A healthful breakfast gives you energy to start your day. ▼

grow. Meat, fish, and beans have a lot of protein.

_____ and _____ in food help body parts do their jobs. Our bodies use many kinds of vitamins and minerals. Only small amounts of each kind are _____.

Match:

Bread, potatoes and pasta	help body parts do their jobs.
Proteins in food	have a lot of protein.
Vitamins and minerals in food	are full of the kind of energy that our bodies need.
Meat fish and beans	help the body grow.
You need to eat food	because you need energy.

Choose True or False:

You don't need to eat food to get energy.

Bread potatoes and pasta are the kind of energy that our bodies need.

You don't need proteins in food to grow.

Only vitamins in food help body parts do their jobs.

Vegetables, fish and beans have a lot of protein.