

Instituto Universitario de Caldas

Present perfect negative and “Never, already, yet and just”

1) Complete the negative sentences by using has not or have not.

- A) He drunk coffee.
- B) My parents been to Germany.
- C) Bill and Fred slept in a five star hotel.
- D) I studied Greek.
- E) My school team won a match.

2) Write the negative form of the following sentences.

Affirmative sentence	Negative sentence
A) I have lived here for years.	I have not lived here for years.
B) I have seen her today.
C) Martin has read the newspaper.
D) She has bought a new dress.

3) Look at the pictures and choose the right adverb to complete the sentence.

A) I have done the dishes, I can rest now and watch tv.

B) He has gone out, if you run, you can catch him.

C) The bell is about to ring and he has not finished the exam .

D) He has driven a car before, it is his first time today.

E) He is not a clever boy, he has not learnt to read .

F) Mark has got his university degree and he feels very happy.

