

Connotation

Instructions: Complete each sentence below by choosing the word that has the most positive connotation. Look up for words in a dictionary for meaning of unknown words.

1. Marta is a little too  to go to the mall alone.
2. Kevin engaged in a political  with his friend.
3. Mr. Cravitz is a very  man.
4. Mrs. Keller was very  when she told me to be on time for class.
5. Who lives in this  cottage?
6. When it comes to money, Mrs. Dabner is very .
7. Please get that  off my lawn.
8. The  from the refrigerator made me sick.

Instructions: For each pair of sentences, write a "P" next to the sentence that has a positive connotation and write a "N" next to the sentence that has a negative connotation.

1. ☐ Mr. Henderson is tight-fisted with his money. He is a penny-pincher.
☐ Mr. Henderson manages his money well. He keeps good records of his finances.
2. ☐ The rain fell down on the landscape like a gentle, timid mist.
☐ The rain pounded the land in angry violent torrents.

