

EXERCISE: Complete the following sentences using the Future Progressive (will be + verb + ing) or the Future Perfect (will have + Past Participle) form of the verbs in parenthesis.

Example:

0. Don't phone Mrs. Lawrence between 7 and 8 PM. She will be having (have) dinner at that time and she hates when people interrupt her dinner! Call her at 8:30 instead, she will have finished (finish) dinner by then.

Your turn now...

1. This time tomorrow, we _____ (relax) on the beach. I can't wait for that 10-day vacation in Bahamas!
2. I _____ (complete) my homework by the time lunch is ready.
3. I'm 6 years old, so by the time I become a professional football player, my idol Cristiano Ronaldo _____ (retire). We won't be able to play together in the same team.
4. Do you think the mechanic _____ (fix) my bike by Sunday? I really need it for the competition.
5. Your volleyball match is next Sunday at 4 PM, right? Your uncle and I _____ (cheer) for you!
6. If you need to contact me, I _____ (stay) at my aunt's house until Saturday.
7. My wife and I travel to a South American country every year. We have already visited Chile, Argentina, Peru, Paraguay and Venezuela. In seven years, we _____ (visit) all the countries of that continent.
8. A: Let's go to the cinema tomorrow!
B: Good idea, but in the evening, ok? I _____ (work) until about 6:00 PM.
A: Alright. I _____ (wait) for you at the central park.