HONEST HEART GROWTH

The Bible says, "I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity" (1 Chronicles 29:17). If God already knows our hearts, why test them? Sometimes God lets us be tested for our sakes. He knows that every time we make a right choice, it's easier to make the right choice next time. That's how we grow strong in character and become trustworthy.

Jesus said,
"Whoever can be

God rejoices when His people are truthful and fair.

1 Chronicles 29:17....

"I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity. All these things have I given willingly and with honest intent. And now I have seen with joy how willingly your people who are here have given to you."
