

Complete with a suitable phrasal verb. Only for the brave of heart ☺

13- Oh come on! You're not five any more. Don't be so immature.

14- It's difficult to.....the course if you are absent so many times.

15- I.....my sisters. They are hard-working and wonderful mothers.

16- You're a bit indecisive. Try to.....your mind soon.

17- Don't lie to me again. Stop.....stories! Tell the truth for once.

18- The family.....on a journey to the beach to enjoy the summer.

19- You have too much free time. You need to.....a new hobby or sport.

20- Who do you.....? Your mother or your father's side of the family?

21- Jane(=likes) knitting. She can knit pullovers and scarves very quickly.

22- What are you.....? Your keys? When was the last time you saw them?

23- Have you ever had a strong argument with Tom? Have you ever.....with him?

24- We are all.....finishing this long phrasal verb exercise! ☺