Every day, I like to know when I'm going to do things. I am very organised. Today I got up at <sup>1</sup> ten past five and went for a long run. Then I had my breakfast at <sup>2</sup> half past seven. I worked all morning and then I had my lunch at <sup>3</sup> half past twelve. At <sup>4</sup> half past three I drank my afternoon cup of tea and ate one biscuit. Only one! I stopped working at <sup>5</sup> half past five and at <sup>6</sup> half past six I had a salad and watched my favourite TV programme. My day was exactly as I planned it!
