

Do Not Press the Walk Button - Key & Peele

Watch the video and answer the questions below:

1. Find in the video the expressions that mean:

A- It is used to mean that doing something would not be harmful and might even be helpful.

- It'd be better to express it again
- couldn't hurt to press it again
- You better no press it again.

B- Your time of arrival at work is about to pass or is already passed.

- I'm like late for work
- I'm running of time to go to work.
- I'm gonna be late at work

C- Asking why or for what purpose or reason.

- What's the reason?
- Why is that?
- What for?

D- To prepare to take part in something, especially an event, by putting on a uniform

- Suit up
- Take up
- Try on

E- Question that focused on the length or duration of something.

- What time...?
- How much...?
- How long...?

F- It's used before a statement to say that one does not want the person or group that one is speaking to, to feel hurt, angry, or upset by what one is about to say

- I'm sorry but...
- Don't want to hurt you...
- No offense...

G- Insanity sense

- Lunacy
- Craziiness
- Dementia

J- Stop insisting. Stop bothering me – vulgar sense.

- Do not call my balls off on this one
- Do not break my balls off on this one
- Do not kill my balls off on this one

2- Dictation: Try to write the dialogue from: 1:37 – 2:00.

Remember that you can slow down the speed on any YouTube videos.

teacherluis@englishchevere.com