

RELATIVE CLAUSES.

(GW3 Ex6)

who/that subject – cannot be omitted
(people)

who/whom/that object – can be omitted
(people)

The girl is talking with the teacher. The girl is the new student.
The girl who is talking with the teacher is the new student.
(subject + verb)

Sam is talking to a boy. The boy is his best friend.
(verb + object)
The boy whom/ who/ that Sam is talking to is his best friend.
The boy to whom Sam is talking is his best friend.

Complete the pair of sentences.

1. Jimmy is talking to a woman. The woman is his aunt.

a) The woman _____ Jimmy _____ is his aunt.

b) The woman Jimmy _____ is his aunt.

2. They took me to a tour. It was amazing.

a) The tour which/that _____ was amazing.

b) The tour they _____ was amazing.

3. Emma had lunch with a woman. The woman was her granny.

a) The woman _____ was her granny.

b) The woman Emma _____ was her granny.

4. Carol is looking for a scarf. The scarf belongs to her mother.

a) The scarf _____ belongs to her mother.

b) The scarf Carol _____ belongs to her mother.

5. Olivia has gone to a meeting. The meeting is very important.

a) The meeting _____ very important.

b) The meeting Olivia _____ very important.

6. Todd is piling with his toy. The toy is very expensive.

a) The toy _____ very expensive.

b) The toy Todd _____ very expensive.

7. Rachel went to the park with a girl. The girl is her sister-in-law.

a) The girl _____ her sister-in-law.

b) The girl Rachel _____ her sister-in-law.

8. Linda is looking at a painting. The painting is very famous.

a) The painting _____ very famous.

b) The painting Linda _____ very famous.