Morning, everyone. Quiet, please. OK, I'm going to give you some to help you prepare for the exams next week. So make notes as I'm talking. Are you ready? While you are, eat food that gives you energy. Don't be tempted to eat sweets or drink cola. Sugar won't help you study but fruit and will. Apples are especially good. Find a comfortable place with plenty of light when you study. But not 'too' comfortable or you'll fall! Try and keep a positive mind. It is easier to study when you are positive and relaxed. If you start anxious, have a break. Go out for a stroll around the block. Don't try to learn everything. There isn't time. the 'important' things, the things that will get you most points in an exam. If you aren't surethis, ask me. First learn the main ideas and don't worry too much about the details. If you have time, you can later and read the details. Make notes of these key points and read them, then cover them up and try to all the points. It might be boring, but repetition helps you to remember. Use past exam papers to study. They will you understand what kind of questions come up. There are plenty of past exam papers in the library. You can them and take them home. Take regular breaks while you are studying. A five-minuteevery half hour is usually enough. Get some fresh air and stretch your and Drink a glass of water too. It's important to keep hydrated. And, last but not least, good luck! I'm sure you will all do your
