

Passive voice 2

Click on the picture to watch the video and discover how bubblegum is made

Right or Wrong ? Show you understand !

Traditionally chewing-gum was made from tree resin

Right

Wrong

Today it is very still natural.

Right

Wrong

They mix the base with honey to make it sweet

Right

Wrong

The pre-extruder squeezes the mixture into thin strips

Right

Wrong

These strips don't need to be cooled down.

Right

Wrong

Finally the strips go into a « cut and wrap » machine

Right

Wrong

PASSIVE VOICE PRACTICE

SUBJECT + BE + PAST PARTICIPLE + [BY + AGENT]

Bubblegum is squeezed by a machine

Fill in the blanks with a passive voice form . Verbs and tense are given between brackets

Traditionally, gum with tree resin . (past/ make)

Today, plastics and rubbers instead. (present / use)

First, the mixture with flavouring and colour . (present / mix)

Other sweeteners too. (present / add)

The ingredients for about 20 minutes (present / blend)

Then the mixture into a pre-extruder. (present / transfer)

It into thin strips . (present / turn)

After that, the strips into a cooling chamber . (present / place)

They(present/ cut)

and finally they (present / wrap) into wax paper .

If you are interested in how things are made click on the picture below !

