PAST PERFECT SIMPLE OR CONTINUOUS

Choose the correct form.

1. I had been translating/ had translated for 2 hours when he arrived.

2. I had been translating /had translated 3 letters when he arrived.

3. I had wanted/had been wanting to meet him on Sunday but I didn't.

4. He was happy. He had been talking/had talked to Lucy for 2 hours.

5. He was happy. He had been talking /had talked to Lucy.

6. It had been raining/had rained the whole week and the ground was still wet.

7. Before I came here, I had spoken/ had been speaking to Jack.

8. We had been planning/had planned to call him, but the line was busy all the time we tried.

9. It was the first time I had met/had been meeting Garry.

10. We were so disappointed. We had waited/had been waiting for this event for 3 years.

11. They had developed/had been developing the product for 2 months before they launched it.

12. They had developed/had been developing the product and then they launched it.

13. I got the bonus. I had sold/had been selling 1000 units a month before.

14. She had already finished/had already been finishing the report when her boss arrived.

15. We had known/had been knowing for a long time that the company was going to close.