

JUDGING BY APPEARANCES

Complete the sentences with MUST- MIGHT – MIGHT NOT- CAN'T

- 1) He lived in Argentina for five years so he _____ speak good Spanish!
- 2) You _____ be very busy at work. You're always on Facebook!
- 3) I'm not sure, but the new assistant _____ be Italian. Her surname is Rossi .
- 4) Mark passed all his exams. His parents _____ be very proud.
- 5) Do you really think England will win tonight? You _____ be serious! They have no chance!
- 6) Lucy wasn't feeling well this afternoon, so she _____ come to the party tonight. She said she would let us know later today.
- 7) I thought our neighbour was away on holiday, but she _____ be - I've just seen her in her garden.
- 8) It's very cold this evening and there's a lot of cloud. I think it _____ snow.

Actions related to the body: complete the sentences with the verbs IN THE CORRECT FORM.

bite - clap – kick - nod - point - smell - smile - stare - taste - touch – throw- whistle

- 1) Don't be frightened of the dog. He won't _____
- 2) Jason _____ the ball too hard and it went over the wall into the next garden.
- 3) Don't _____ stones – you might hit somebody.
- 4) Mmmm! Something _____ delicious. Are you making a cake?
- 5) The stranger _____ at me for a long time, but he didn't say anything.
- 6) Can you _____ the rice? I'm not sure if it's cooked yet.
- 7) Some builders _____ when the girl walked past.
- 8) Don't _____ the oven door! It's really hot.
- 9) The audience _____ when I finished singing.
- 10) The teacher suddenly _____ at me and said: "What's the answer?" I hadn't even heard the question!
- 11) In Russia if you _____ at strangers, people think you are mad
- 12) Everybody _____ in agreement when I explained my idea

Idioms related to body parts

There are lots of English idiomatic and colloquial expressions which use parts of the body. Complete the expressions in bold below with one word..

NOSE – HAND – EYE- ARM - NECK – FOOT – FINGERS- CHEST – LEG- EYE -

- 1) He gave me a _____ with the washing-up.
- 2) Don't worry. I wasn't being serious. I was only pulling your _____.
- 3) Can you keep an _____ out for the traffic warden while I go into the bank?
- 4) He's always annoying me! He's such a pain in the _____.
- 5) He really put his _____ in it when he said his boss's wife was too fat: she was standing right behind him!
- 6) Good luck in the exam. I'll be keeping my _____ crossed for you.
- 7) We get on well, even though we don't always see _____ to _____.
- 8) If something is worrying you, talk to me about it. You'll feel much better if you get it off your _____.
- 9) Mind your own business! Stop sticking your _____ in!
- 10) It cost me an _____ and a leg to get my car fixed.'