

Choose the correct option

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE VS. PAST SIMPLE

1. Fran went / has gone ballroom dancing last night.
2. Did you finish / Have you finished vlogging yet?
3. I had / have had this camera for over a year.
4. I read / have read the whole magazine in an hour.
5. Sam isn't hungry because he already ate / has already eaten.
6. Did you go / Have you been cycling last weekend?

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE VS. PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS

1. You're two hours late! What have you done / have you been doing all afternoon?
2. This farm has belonged / has been belonging to our family for two centuries.
3. 'I sent you a email' 'Really? I haven't received it / haven't been receiving it.'
4. Is Tom Ok? I 've texted / 've been texting him three times this week, but he hasn't replied.
5. Have you eaten / Have you been eating my popcorn? The box is half empty!
6. Is dinner ready yet? You 've cooked / 've been cooking for hours.
7. I'm really enjoying this nove, but I haven't understood / haven't been understanding all of it.
8. My dad has sold / has been selling his car. He goes everywhere by bike now.