

Full Name: _____ Section: _____

Part A directions: Combine each pair of sentences using a conjunction from the word bank by writing the sentences again. Remember when the sentence begins with a subordinating conjunction, a comma is placed at the end of the dependent clause.

after      before      although      whenever      while      even though since      until      where      when      that      because

1. The teacher let us listen to music. We worked on our papers.

_____

2. I cannot find a good restaurant. I can eat for a good price.

_____

3. She can visit her grandma. Her family travels to Florida this summer.

_____

4. It is crazy. We haven't had physical school since March.

_____

5. Noah was absent three days last week. Noah scored an A on his test.

_____

6. My brother wants to go to the lake. He loves to swim.

_____

Part B directions: Read the sentence below and write the conjunction in the box under the sentence. In the second box, write "C" if the conjunction is coordinating (FANBOYS) or "S" if the conjunction is subordinating (ON A WHITE BUS).

1. Cassidy gave her doll away, but she immediately regretted it.
2. Although he was nervous, Timmy gave the speech.
3. Lisa drove to the shore for vacation because she wants to watch the waves.
4. I will have the steak and potatoes for lunch.
5. Since I was tired, I went to bed early.
6. The ice, cold lemonade helped her stay hydrated and happy.
7. I couldn't decide if I wanted a new book or a new stationary set.
8. I was worried before I saw the test results.