

A collection of Puns

The pun is a form of word play which suggests two or more meanings, by exploiting multiple meanings of words, or of similar-sounding words, for an intended humorous or rhetorical effect.

Match the opening line with its response by dragging the correct response to it.

1. Two antennas met on a roof, fell in love and got married.

2. A set of jumper cables walk into a bar. The bartender says:

3. Two cannibals are eating a clown. One says to the other:

4. An invisible man marries an invisible woman.

5. I went to buy some camouflage trousers the other day,

6. Two fish swim into a concrete wall.

'Does this taste funny to you? '

One turns to the other and says, 'Dam !'

The wedding wasn't good, but the reception was excellent.

but I couldn't find any.

The kids were nothing to look at either.

'I'll serve you, but don't start anything.'

Explanations:

- 1. Wedding ceremony / wedding reception. Antennas for TV reception.
- 2. A set of jumper cables is used to start a car with a flat battery. To start something is to cause trouble.
- 3. Two meanings of funny - funny = odd / funny = humorous (like a clown)
- 4. Nothing to look at means quite plain or ugly. If something is invisible there is nothing to look at.
- 5. To camouflage is to make something difficult to see.
- 6. Dam = Damn!
