

Dear Helen,

I'm on the farm in America now. Every day it's sunny and warm. There are a lot of children on the farm. I work and play games with them. Now I'm writing the letter in the house. Jack is learning to swim. Terry is lying(躺) in the sun. John is reading a newspaper and some children are playing football near the house. We are going to milk cows tomorrow, so we have to get up earlier tomorrow morning.

We enjoy(享受) the holiday very much.

See you soon.

Love,

Janet

After breakfast, I sent the children to school at seven and then I went to the market. It was still early when I returned home. The children were at school, my husband was at work and the house was quiet. So I decided to make some tarts (果馅饼) for tea. In a short time I was busy mixing butter and flour and my hands were soon covered with sticky pastry.

At that moment, the telephone rang. I picked up the receiver (电话听筒) between two sticky fingers and was surprised when I heard the voice of Mrs Bates, who invited me to have lunch with her. It took me around ten minutes to ask her to ring back later.

At last I hung up the receiver. What a mess! There was pastry on my fingers, on the telephone, and on the doorknobs(门把). I had no sooner got back to the kitchen than the door-bell rang loud enough to wake the dead. This time it was the postman and he wanted me to sign for a letter!
