

CONDITIONALS

LEVEL B1

1. Use the expressions to make sentences in the Zero Conditional.

usually get up be a traffic jam have a headache be angry drink strong coffee need to study get back never shout not go the weather change

- 1) My mum is a very calm person. She at anyone even if she
- 2) I sometimes home from work later if there on the way.
- 3) He late if he to work early.
- 4) I usually if I for a test.
- 5) My grandmother is sensitive to air pressure and she often if

2. Choose the correct option to complete the sentences in the Zero or First Conditional.

- 1) If it rains / will rain tomorrow, the children won't play / don't play in the playground.
- 2) I always go / will go for a walk if the weather will be / is good.
- 3) If you leave / will leave your bike unlocked, somebody steals / will steal it!
- 4) Slow down! If the police stop / will stop us, we pay / will pay a fine.
- 5) I usually do / will do some cleaning in the afternoon unless I am / will be tired after a hard day's work.

3. Rewrite the sentences using UNLESS.

- 1) She won't come with us if her parents don't let her.

- 2) If my lawyer doesn't come, I won't say anything.

- 3) You'll pass the driving test easily if you don't get too nervous.

- 4) If Julia doesn't apologise, I won't speak to her.

4. Choose the correct option to complete the sentences in the Second Conditional.

- 1) I didn't buy / wouldn't buy it if I were / would be you.
- 2) Did you study / Would you study abroad if you had / would have the chance?
- 3) The school was / would be a better place if we didn't have to / wouldn't have to study so many subjects.
- 4) If Emma found / would found something better, she quit / would quit her job.
- 5) If I knew / would know the answer, I told / would tell you. But I've got no idea!

5. Rewrite the sentences using the Second Conditional.

1. People don't like him because he is arrogant.

2. He lives abroad now so we don't see each other very often.

3. It's cold inside because the windows are old.

4. Tom doesn't like you because you laugh at him.

5. We don't have a car because we don't earn enough money.

6. Use the verbs in brackets to write sentences in the Zero, First or Second Conditional.

- 1) Hurry up! If we (leave) now, we (arrive) before ten o'clock.
- 2) Your cough sounds awful. If I (be) you, I (see) a doctor immediately.
- 3) The roof needs repairing. If it (rain), there (always / be) a lot of water in the attic.
- 4) It's a pity it's raining again. If the weather (improve), we (go) cycling.
- 5) If I (be) late tomorrow, (you / wait) for me?