

Instituto Gubernamental Manuel Pagán Lozano, Colonia López Arellano, Choloma, Cortés
Simple Past Verb to be I Semester 2020

Forming the past tense of to be.

Affirmative and negative sentence

I	was
He	was not
She	wasn't
It		at home	yesterday.
You	were		last week.
We	were not
They	weren't

Interrogative sentence

Was	I
	he she
	it	at home	yesterday?
Were	you
	we they

1. Fill in the gaps with was or were, wasn't or weren't.

- He a good student.
- Mom at the bank yesterday.
- Peter and David tired last night.
- The cat in the garden. (neg)
- We at the church yesterday.
- Mary sick last week?
- My aunt Lucy at the shopping mall last night.
- My brother at work yesterday. (neg)
- you sleepy in class yesterday?
- My family in La Ceiba last Summer.
- They at school yesterday.
- Sara at the supermarket yesterday afternoon. (neg)
- I at the beach last week.
- My sister born in April.
- The pencils on the table.

2. Rewrite the sentences below by changing the verb to be into the past simple (was / were).

- I am exhausted.
.....
- Everything is all right.
.....
- Betty is on the sofa.
.....
- Mary is a baby.
.....
- You are in Guatemala.
.....
- The door is open.
.....
- This is my house.
.....
- We are good students.
.....
- Genesis and Martha are at school.
.....
- They are my teachers.
.....