Family at Sea

● Andrew Sayre is from Australia but he doesn't live there. His home is a 15-metre yacht, and he lives in many different countries in one year.

● His mum and dad are writers. Their books are about the sea, their adventures, and the places that they visit. They send the books back to Australia by email.

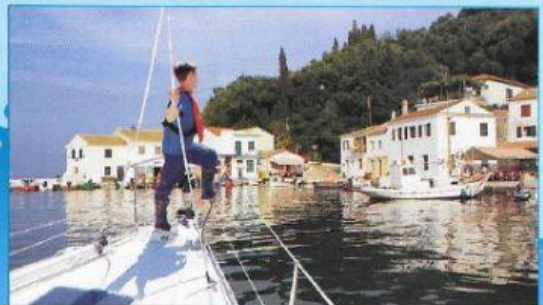

● Living on a boat isn't always easy. Their yacht is very small. There is one big cabin inside. It is the kitchen, the bedroom, and the sitting room. At night the shelf under the window turns into Andrew's bed.

● On the boat all the family work. They take it in turns to be the 'lookout' at night. The 'lookout' looks after the boat and doesn't sleep! During the day they take it in turns to clean, to cook, to sail the yacht, and to use the computer.

● When they reach a nice port, they stop. Sometimes they stay for a week and sometimes for six months. When they stay for a long time, Andrew goes to school. After some time they sail away again.
