Presence (há/não há)

	Countable for example; apples, cars		Uncountable for example; milk, pollution
✔	(singular) There is a / an...	(plural) There are some...	There is some...
⛔	There isn't a / an...	There aren't any... OR There are no...	There isn't any... OR There is no...
?	Is there a / an...?	Are there any...?	Is there any.....?

B. Can you count these items? Mark countable C uncountable U and U/C if both money U	ice cream U/C	burger C

coffee	sugar	water
hour	time	computer
salt	bag	house
lesson	idea	food
wine	bottle	fruit
fish	chicken	mistake

C. Fill in the right answer for these sentences with some / a / an / any / no

1. I'm going out to the shops to get _____ food and _____ clothes.

2. I bought some fruit this morning. Would you like _____ apple or _____ banana?

3. I'm sorry, I have _____ idea what you're talking about.

4. _____ people think they have the right to a job without having to do _____ work.

5. Please don't make _____ noise. I'm trying to concentrate.

6. I don't have _____ children yet, but I want to have _____ when I'm older.

7. Are there _____ good Italian restaurants in this town?

8. There's _____ food in the fridge. We need to go shopping again.

9. Would you like _____ wine with your meal sir? Yes please, bring me _____ red wine.

10. Do you want _____ help with that maths test?

11. I think the weather looks terrible. Do you have _____ umbrella I can take?

12. This exercise is very easy and I'm not making _____ mistakes.