I help the Environment

1 Read the information about Keiko

Keiko: Hello! My name's Keiko. I live in Japan. I live on an ecofriendly farm. These are my parents working on the organic strawberry farm. This is my house and those are solar panels. We recycle. We separate plastic bottles. My house is a typical Japanese house. This is the living room. There isn't a sofa and there aren't chairs. We sit on the floor. This is the bedroom. There aren't beds. We sleep on Japanese beds called futons. This is my mother in the kitchen. The kitchen is very small.

2 Put the pictures in the correct orden. Then, discuss the questions in groups.

☐ futons

☐ traditional Japanese living room

☐ kitchen

☐ grandparents

☐ organic strawberry farm

☐ solar panels

☐ recycling

a. Where does Keiko live?
b. What's special about Keiko's house?
c. Where does her family sit?
d. Is their living room similar to the one in your house?
e. Where do they sleep?

3 Look at the poster and label.

- That means there are solar panels on the house.
- Those vegetables mean there's a vegetable garden.
- That indicates they collect rainwater.
- That means they use a bicycle.
- That sign means they recycle

- 4 Write sentences using the pictures to ask and answer questions about you can do to protect the environment.

plastic bags 	 rubbish that is not separated	TV on in an empty room 	taps with running water
What are these?	What's this?	What's that?	What are those?

Stop! What are these?

Don't use... Use...!
Turn the... off!
