COMPARATIVES

- How do we form comparative statements? Study the grammar reference chart below.

● Adjectives with one syllable: add '-er' or '-r' + 'than'
cold	colder than	"In Canada, winter is colder than summer."
nice	nicer than	"Chocolate ice-cream is nicer than strawberry ice-cream."
● Adjectives with two or more syllables: add 'more' + 'than'
boring	more boring than	"I think golf is more boring than baseball."
expensive	more expensive than	"This restaurant is more expensive than that restaurant."
● Adjectives with two syllables that end in '-y': change '-y' to '-i' and add '-er' + 'than'
early	earlier than	"He arrived at school earlier than I did."
happy	happier than	"John looks happier than David."
● Adjectives that end with a single vowel and a consonant: double the final letter before adding 'than'
big	bigger than	"Russia is bigger than Canada."
hot	hotter than	"In my country, August is hotter than January."

NOTE: When a comparative statement is used to answer a question, it is not necessary to use 'than' if only one person, place or thing is mentioned.

Example:
(A) Which month is hotter, January or August?
(B) August is hotter.
