Hello class,
This is what I see when I open the window.
There is a town with a church and a school.
The houses are very similar and there is a road with cars. It is a quiet place.

Hello class,
This is what I see when I open the window.
There is a lake and a boat in front of every house. It is a small and colorful village. I can see the mountains behind the houses.

Hello class,
When I open the window I see a road full of cars. There are nine palm trees next to the road. There are also some boats on the sea and two small islands. I can see the city and skyscrapers. They are incredible!

Hello class,
When I open the window I see a field full of grass. There is also a small and colorful village between a narrow river and a road. There is a bridge on the river and a fence next to the road. It is very beautiful!
