

Check Your Progress

Grammar

1. He told me that it was my mistake. It was nonsense.
....., which.....
2. My friend wants to become a psychologist. She loves helping people.
....., who.....
3. This is the book. Our teacher was talking about it.
.....that
4. Many experts will attend the conference. New theories will be presented.
.....where
5. Our neighbor is going to the UK soon. Her daughter lives in Porthmouth.
....., whose.....

Rewrite the following sentences. Begin with “what”

1. Mary is really pushy. I don't really like this about her.
2. He's always singing. This makes him seem friendly.
3. No one is perfect. You should remember this.
4. Paul always interrupts when I speak. I find it really annoying.
5. She gave me really nice smile. I'll never forget that.

Use a correct form of a verb given with “remember, stop, or try”

1. I(see) the car coming towards me but nothing after that.
2.(phone) John at home. Sometimes he doesn't work on Fridays.
3. We (have) a cup of coffee for ten minutes.
4. I (apologize) to him but he wouldn't listen.
5. You must(invite) Carl to your party. If not, he will be upset.

Write an adjective for each definition

1. He understand how I feel and he's always willing to listen to my problem =
.....
2. He doesn't pay much attention to what he does and that's why he makes a lot of mistakes =
3. She is really funny. She makes me laugh a lot. =
4. She says something to make people feel good about themselves.
=.....