

A Knight's Tale

Fill in the blanks with the articles 'a', 'an' or 'the'.

Once upon a time, there was _____ cowardly knight. One day, _____ knight was riding past _____ cave. _____ knight thought that _____ cave might contain something dangerous. Sure enough, _____ ogre came out of _____ cave. _____ ogre pulled out _____ large club. _____ club was covered with sharp pointy spikes. _____ knight took one look at _____ ogre with _____ large club and turned his horse and ran away as fast as he could.

The next day, _____ knight came to _____ bridge. There was something strange about _____ bridge so _____ knight stopped his horse before crossing _____ bridge. Sure enough, _____ troll jumped onto _____ bridge and started walking towards _____ knight. _____ troll had _____ large pointy spear. _____ knight took one look at _____ troll with _____ long spear and turned his horse and ran away as fast as he could.

About a week later, on _____ dark stormy night, _____ knight was walking past _____ old castle. _____ castle looked empty so _____ knight entered _____ gate and went inside to sleep. As soon as he got inside _____ knight saw _____ ghost floating in the middle of the room. _____ ghost turned towards _____ knight and started to head towards him. _____ knight turned and ran away of course. But, there outside the castle blocking _____ gate was _____ troll and _____ ogre. _____ ogre, _____ troll, and _____ ghost surrounded _____ knight and pulled him off of his horse. That was it for _____ knight.

Now work in groups or with a partner and decide what the moral of the story is.