

Franklin Park ZOO in Boston

Franklin Park Zoo is in Boston, USA. Visitors to the zoo can see hundreds of animal species from around the world. There are gorillas, lions, cheetahs, giraffes, zebras and many more. The animals live in environments similar to their own: tropical rainforest, Australian outback and the African Savannah. The zoo is open 10am to 5pm on weekdays and 10am to 6pm at weekends.

Boston is in the USA.	yes	no
There are thousands of animal species.	yes	no
There are only African animals.	yes	no
There are no giraffes and zebras.	yes	no
The animals live in big cages.	yes	no
There are animals from tropical rainforest.	yes	no
The ZOO opens at 10 am every day.	yes	no
The ZOO is closed at weekends.	yes	no