

Choose the right word-building element to make the sentence correct. (Drag and Drop)

- The parents were very _____ pleased with Ann's behavior at the party.
1. dis                      2. re                      3. mis                      4. de
- I was sure that they didn't know the under _____ reason for that decision.
1. taking                      2. standing                      3. lying                      4. going
- Although he had been _____ vised to read the task thoroughly, he failed to do the task correctly.
1. re                      2. de                      3. super                      4. ad
- The amount of food a person _____ sumes depends much on his social status and influences one's physical health.
1. ex                      2. pre                      3. con                      4. re
- We couldn't find the documents in the room. Mike must have mis _____ them.
1. judged                      2. taken                      3. placed                      4. led
- I was hoping to _____ press my attitude on the topic of the conversation.
1. in                      2. ex                      3. re                      4. de
- My friend has gone over _____ after a large wave hit he boat.
1. seas                      2. land                      3. head                      4. board
- The sky was over _____ and we were waiting for the rain to begin.
1. stuffed                      2. filled                      3. due                      4. cast
- What medicine did the doctor _____ scribe?
1. de                      2. in                      3. pre                      4. sub
- When we heard the lion's roar, we felt a _____ conscious fear, we began to run.
1. dis                      2. sub                      3. un                      4. in

After finishing the task, enjoy the view:

Autumn in Kolomna.