

Read each sentence from Amazing Grace. Then, write what kind of sentence it is, either simple, compound, complex, or compound-complex.

1. Grace was a girl who loved stories.
2. After she had heard them, and sometimes while they were still going on, Grace would act them out.
3. When there was no one else around, Grace played all the parts herself.
4. Sometimes she could get Ma and Nana to join in when they weren't too busy.
5. Then she was Doctor Grace and their lives were in her hands.
6. Grace knew who she wanted to be.
7. "Lots of you want to be Peter Pan, so we'll have to have auditions next week to choose parts."
8. When Grace got home, she seemed sad.
9. Everyone voted for Grace.
10. The play was a big success and Grace was an amazing Peter Pan.
11. "If Grace put her mind to it, she can do anything she want."

