FunSheet -Beginners

Which three people are not described?

Your answers:

1.This guy his famous for his speech "I Have a Dream". He was a minister and fought for the rights of black people in America.

2. He came originally from Germany and together with his brother he landed in California. He didn't strike gold in the way people would like – instead he invented the blue jeans as we know them today.

3. This guy has made a lot of money from his sport. He is half black and half Asian.

4. He sailed on the oceans to discover India. Instead he discovered America.

5. From his clothing you can tell he is from India. He didn't believe in guns and fights but that you could get things the way you wanted by peaceful actions.

6. The word MAGIC is related to this sportsman. A lot of sports gear has been named after him.

7." I am behind many computer s. I created software and my company is called Microsoft."

8. He was from Italy or France or Portugal. No one knows exactly. He traveled oceans to discover new lands.

9. "I planted the American flag on the moon in 1969."

10. He wrote many plays.

11. I used to live on the prairies.

People

