

Present Simple: HAVE

We use have to talk about families and possessions.

+

I/You/We/They	have	three sisters.
He/She/It

-

I/You/We/They		any sisters.
He/She/It	doesn't have

?

Do	I/you/we/they		any sisters?
Does	he/she/it

Exercise 1. Complete the text with the correct form of the verb to have.

Mary and Paul have a niece, Gabrielle. She _____ one child, Eduardo. She also _____ two brothers, Nicholas and Stephen.

Jeanette _____ a niece, Alicia. Alicia _____ any children but she _____ a sister, Sandra.

Phillip _____ two children, Donna and Simon. They _____ a cousin called Luigi. He _____ a son, David, and a daughter, Louisa, but he _____ any brothers or sisters.

Exercise 2. Use the prompts to write questions.

1. How many/brothers and sisters/you have?

How many brothers and sisters do you have?

2. You/have/any children?

_____

3. You/have/any cousins?

_____

4. How many/aunts and uncles/you have?

_____